Fighting Breaks Out Between U.N., Katanga Troops

Conflict Brings To End An Uneasy Cease-Fire

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, The Congo (AP) — Heavy fighting broke out in several sectors of Elisabethville between United Nations and Katanga troops today and both sides suffered casualties.

The United Nations charged that Katangans attempted a well-prepared ambush on U.N. headquarters.

Katanga leaders charged that the U.N. force opened fire with heavy weapons on lightly armed Katangans. The fighting broke a two and one-half month cease-fire.

U.N. headquarters in Leopoldville said two foreign mercenaries were killed in one action and 38 Katangans were killed in a fight at a roadblock between Elisabethville airport and the town.

GIVES AUTHORITY

Sture Linner, U.N. head in the Congo, said Acting Secretary-General U Thant had given unlimited authority to restore order in the secessionist province. U Thant ordered jet fights flown to Elisabethville.

The United Nations reported one killed and two wounded among its forces at the airport.

SPORADIC SHOOTING

After the widespread fighting died down to sporadic shooting, Brian Urquhart, special U.N. adviser here, said two foreign mercenaries were killed by Gurkha Indian troops. He charged the Katangans had

Obscenity Trial Of Miller Book Starts In Marin

By CARLETON WILLIAMS

Of 13 prospective jurors questioned this morning by attorneys in the "Tropic of Cancer" obscenity trial, none had read the book.

One of the veniremen—Mrs. Edna MacDonald of 111 Walnut Avenue, Mill Valley—said she had read "Lady Chatterly's Lover" and "Lolita."

One—Robert F. Kendall of 33 Sequoia Drive, San Anselmo—said he was too prejudiced to give the defendant, Frank B. Pershina, a fair trial.

Municipal Court Judge Leonard A. Thomas, hearing the trial in which Pershina, owner of the Golden Hind Book Store in San Anselmo, is charged with knowingly selling obscene matter, told the press before the trial that it would be handled as any other routine case.

"This will not be a hippodrome," Thomas said, forbidding newspaper or television cameras in court during session.

He also told the jurors the outcome of the trial would be decided strictly by the letter of the law.

"If I tell you the moon is made of green cheese—according to law—then that is my error, not yours. Are you willing to follow the law to this extent?" asked the judge.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety objected several times to questions by defense attorneys as to whether the juror "had any ideas about books containing four-letter words." The question was "ambiguous," since the trial deals with only one book, Garety said.

Thomas instructed defense attorneys Charles W. Pierce and Lawrence Goldberg not to wander too far afield.

"I want you to have a free hand," Thomas said, but indicated he would call a halt to questions too far from the legal definition of the word obscenity.

Questioned during the morning were 13 of the list of 100 jurors on call for the trial.

They were, in addition to Kendall and Mrs. MacDowell, Angelo R. Turrini of 11 Oakwood Drive, San Rafael, owner of United Ambulance Service; Mrs. Erna A. Holemann of Allen Avenue, Ross, who said she was "a gardener, not a reader"; Mrs. Victoria Brehmer of 427 Oakdale Avenue, Corte Madera, who said, when questioned by Goldberg as to whether she believed in free speech, "Yes, to a certain extent"; Mrs. Beatrice Musson of 640 Rosal Avenue, San Rafael, an employee of Safeway Stores; William H. BOARD IN HOSPITAL AGREEMENT

Won't Decide Anything Yet —Minds Open

By RANDALL GOULD

Marin County supervisors reached at least a temporarily unanimous position on the county hospital problem yesterday.

They were firm in deciding that they won't decide anything yet, that their minds are open, and that their decision would be helped by a trip to Humboldt County.

Three promoters of private projects who had showed up in hope of a different outcome departed with long faces.

DEADLINES

Only real difference of opinion was whether Marin County is safe in missing state deadlines without written state reassurance.

Chairman William D. Fusselman said he'd arranged things by phone so that it would be all right to slip past the first deadline—Dec. 11 for temporary strengthening plans to be ready for bid, and the second—Dec. 18 when methods of financing a new facility should have been decided.

He said engineer Harold M. Engle will have plans ready Dec. 12.

NOTHING NEW

This preceded a recess just before 4 p.m. Frank F. Marsh of International Industrial Institute, Ltd., first of three groups to put in plans for private construction of a nursing facility, had shown up in time for a 3 p.m. scheduled discussion, but he decided to depart with brief comment that he had nothing new to bring up.

Remaining and later heard were attorney Peter Allen Smith, who had brought a draft contract which the board never got around to discuss, and F.

Marin City High School Plan Gains

Trustees Agree To Purchase Fill For Site

Tamalpais Union High School District trustees last night started positive action on developing a high school site in Marin City, an issue which has been tossed around since 1955.

The trustees, in answer to a question by Leland H. Jordan, attorney for the Marin County Redevelopment Agency, said "yes" on the purchase of fill to be placed on the proposed high school site in Marin City.

Jordan wanted to know: (1) Is the district going to build a high school right away? (2) Does the district wish to retain the site?

CALL FOR BIDS

The first question was unanswered specifically, and the second was overanswered.

The trustees, on motion of William B. Lewis, voted unanimously to call for bids for 150,000 yards of fill dirt for the site.

After the motion was passed, Jordan told the trustees they had acted in too much haste. He said the revelopment agency has plenty of fill dirt on Marin City hillsides and wanted to know "if the trustees wanted the fill if it could be obtained at a reasonable cost."

He said he had yet to check on the question of one public agency purchasing fill or anything else from another agency which is provided for in the joint powers act.

The board agreed to await further word from Jordan or Bert Klahn, executive director of the Redevelopment Agency, before calling for bids on fill.

EIGINEER WORK

Jordan said today that engineering work would have to be done before any costs of fill could be given to the school district.

A few dwelling units are on the proposed school site which would have to be cleared away before any building could take place. Fill could be put on some of the 30-acre site before the houses are removed.

The trustees said they could give no definite answer as to whether (or when) a school would be built on the Marin City site.

SOUTHERN MARIN GOING TO POLLS

Neither cold nor fog nor polling place foulups could keep Third Supervisorial District voters from the polls today.

A spot check showed that from one-sixth to one-fourth of the registered voters in most precincts had cast ballots by noon on the question of whether to recall County Supervisor J. Walter Blair and replace him with Peter H. Behr, Mill Valley attorney and former city councilman. The big turnout, as usual, was expected in late afternoon, with polls remaining open until 7 p.m.

Some Muir Beach and Homestead residents had trouble voting, because of conflicting notices of polling places.

Fire Chief Herbert Owen said by 10:45 a.m. five had appeared at the Tamalpais Valley Firehouse asking where to vote.

First election notices sent residents of the area specified the Tamalpais Valley Firehouse as a polling place. Later ones designated the Homestead Firehouse and Tamalpais Improvement Clubhouse.

Jack Harris of Muir Beach turned up at the Tam Valley Firehouse with three polling place cards—one showing that firehouse, the second the Homestead Firehouse, and the third the improvement club. "I'm confused," he told Chief Owen.

Jacques J. Nadler of 928 West California Avenue, Homestead, said he went, as directed, to the Homestead Firehouse.

"I was told," he said, "Oh, no, go to the Tamalpais Valley Firehouse.'" Arriving there, he was told, "Oh, no, go to the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club."

There he voted. But, he said, "I was afraid I would probably be sent next to Meyer's Cleaners at Tam Junction."

By 11:30 a.m., 200 of about 600 registered had voted at the Old Mill School — Supervisor Blair's home precinct. Blair took his wife to the school to vote this morning, having voted himself by absentee ballot.

In candidate Behr's home precinct, 132 out of about 500 had voted by noon—including Behr.

The morning vote totals at other polling places varied from 131 of 500 registered at Mount Carmel School to a low of only 60 of 600 at Alto Firehouse The weather was cold and foggy in Mill Valley, Sausalito and the Tiburon Peninsula during the morning. But in Stinson Beach, reported OB Cavanaugh, inspector at the polling place at the community center, "it's a beautiful day—a fine day for voting."

'OBSCENE," HE SAYS—Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety maintains Frank B. Pershina is guilty of selling an obscene book. Garety is personally conducting prosection of the case which opened today. (Independent-Journal photos)

Span Leaper Chances For Life Improve

Chances for survival for Francis Patrick Kennedy looked brighter today.

The condition of the 20-year-old Oakland youth who jumped from the Golden Gate Bridge early Sunday—and lived—was described as "still critical but much improved" by attendants at Marin General Hospital.

"He has a lot of fight in him. I think he will make it," one attendant said.

According to the youth's uncle, Thomas R. Gardiner of Piedmont, the jump was all a mistake.

Gardiner was the only member of the youth's family who talked to him on Sunday following his seven-hour ordeal on the operating table when four specialists worked to keep him alive.

The uncle said Kennedy told him he thought he was jumping only about 20 feet, and jumped only because he was

Adlai Says Won't Run For Senate

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Adlai E. Stevenson announced today that he will not run for the U.S. Senate next year.

The former Illinois governor said in a statement issued here that he felt he could best serve the country by remaining chairman of the American delegation to the United Nations.

Stevenson thus dispelled reports that he would oppose Everett Dirksen of Illinois, Republican minority leader in the Senate, in next November's election.

RECALL VOTE FIGURES ON TAP TONIGHT

The Independent-Journal and KTIM will tabulate recall election returns tonight at the I-J Southern Marin office, 23 Corte Madera Avenue, Mill Valley.

KTIM-FM will broadcast the returns as they are compiled, over KTIM-FM (100.9), starting after the polls close at 7 p.m.

Results also may be obtained by telephoning the I-J at DU 8-2351 or GL 4-3020, starting at 8 p.m.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served to those who at 8 p.m. visit the I-J office in Mill Valley, to await returns.

U.S. Wants To Know About Mindszenty

WASHINGTON (AP) — American officials say they want to know more before commenting on a Hungarian proposal to discuss the future of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty.

Gyula Kallai, deputy premier of the Communist regime in Hungary, told a news conference yesterday that his government is ready to negotiate.

MARDI GRAS TIME

I-J Plans To Sponsor Latin Goodwill Visit

The Independent-Journal will sponsor a goodwill visit to South America next February.

Highlights of the trip will be stops at Sausalito's sister city of Vina Del Mar, Chile, and at San Rafael, Argentina. (See photo, page 8.)

The trip will be timed to visit Rio De Janeiro coincident with the start of the Mardi Gras carnival.

Marin County residents may make arrangements for the trip through Redwood Travel Advisors, San Rafael. The price of $1,150 per person will include transportation arranged by Pan American-Grace Airways, accommodations at first class hotels, all meals, sightseeing excursions, transfer to and from airports, and even tips for meal service and baggage handling.

There will be stops in Panama, Peru, Chile, Argentina and Brazil.

Those who make the tour will have the option of returning home from Rio De Janiero via Mexico City or via Miami and New York, with stopover privileges at no extra transportation cost.

For an additional charge, the basic 17-day trip can be extended to cover several days more in Rio during carnival time and to provide an additional visit to important Inca ruins in Peru.

Recent visitors to Marin from San Rafael, Argentina, have indicated their intention to extend special hospitality to those who make the I-J goodwill visit in February.

PRESIDENT, MACMILLAN WILL MEET

U.S., British Leaders To Map Berlin Strategy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will meet in Bermuda Dec. 21 and 22 to outline final strategy for possible Berlin negotiations with the Sovet Union.

The White House announced plans for the conference late yesterday.

In addition to their policy talks on Berlin, Kennedy and Macmillan are expected to discuss disarmament negotiations and a course for an agreement to end nuclear weapons testing under an international inspection system. They may issue some new call for cooperation by the Soviet Union to bring the nuclear race under control.

Diplomatic informants in London said Kennedy and Macmillan also were expected to discuss the negotiations now in progress to bring Britain into the European Common Market, ways of tightening Western defenses and the probable meaning of the recent Communist party congress in Moscow.

Red China Debate On

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —A concerted Asian-African attack on the U.S. attempt to bar Red China from the United Nations built up steam today as the General Assembly buckled down to a long, stormy debate on the Chinese seating issue.

Ceylon, one of 17 Asian-African nations which has diplomatic relations with Peiping, launched the drive yesterday with one of the sharpest assaults ever made in the United Nations on Washington's China policy.

U.S. Astronaut In 'Ready Room'

Government Pressing Ahead With Man-In-Space Project

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The United States pressed head today toward its goal of orbiting a man around the world this year. Scientists, engineers and technicians worked round the clock and astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., the chosen pilot, began extensive preparation in a "ready room" not far from the launching pad.

If all goes right, the attempt could be made as early as Dec. 20. Technical problems could delay the launching, and major trouble could push it into 1962.

Glenn moved yesterday into special quarters on the Cape so he could be near all key centers of Project Mercury operations.

Not far away are the launching pad where the huge Atlas booster rocket was erected Saturday; the hangar where Glenn's space-craft is undergoing thorough checkout, the Mercury control center, nerve center of the operation, and a ground-based capsule where he can run through simulated flights of his projected three times around the world mission.

The "ready room" is the same lodging occupied by astronauts Alan B. Shepard Jr. and Virgil I. Grissom for a few days before their 15-minute suborbital flights earlier this year.

With a more demanding assignment before him, Glenn, 40, a Marine Corps lieutenant colonel, entered the quarters early to prepare for the flight. He will undergo periodic physical and psychological examinations, bone up on space roadmaps so stars and ground features will be readily recognized when he looks out of his spaceship as it zips around the world at 17,500 miles an hour, and he will hold numerous consultations on progress of the missile and capsule.

Glenn will live in the quarters most of the time until launching. But he will be able to leave the Cape when his training does not restrict him. His wife, Anna, their two children will remain at their home in Arlington, Va.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has not announced that manned orbit will be tried this year. But it is known officials want to achieve it in 1961, the same year as the Soviet Union.

SECRETARY UDALL
On the lone prairie

UDALL IS TOLD TO GET OFF THE GRASS

Kansans Don't Want National Park Made Out Of Bluestem Country

WESTMORELAND, Kan. (UPI) —Plans by the federal government to preserve part of "the vanishing prairie" as a national park were set back today by a loud and insistent volley of protest from ranchers in the cattle-rich Bluestem country of northeast Kansas.

Interior Secretary Stewart Udall got the message yesterday when he toured a 60,000-acre tract in Pottawatomie County—the proposed site for the Prairie National Park.

When his helicopter landed at one point on the rolling hills, a rancher threw up a verbal "no trespassing" sign, and Udall heard it and obeyed it.

The cattleman, 50-year-old Carl Bellinger, told the cabinet member: "You're trespassing, get off."

But the Arizonan's feelings were obviously hurt.

"It's too bad that when a member of the president's cabinet wants to take a walk on a hill he is told to get off," Udall complained. "But the national park will remedy that. It will make this beautiful country available to all of the people."

C. J. Carlson, a member of the county zoning board, took issue with that statement at a public hearing Udall attended yesterday after he was evicted.

"The idea that the prairie is vanishing is a plain, unvarnished myth," Carlson said. "I challenge you to prove that we are not taking care of our grass."

Utility Firms File Suits Over Prices

NEW YORK (AP)—Forty-four electric utility companies — taking their cue from the federal government's antitrust action last February—have filed a dozen damage suits against 21 electrical manufacturers.

The utilities charge price-rigging among the manufacturers and seek triple damages. The exact amount sought, the suits say, will be specified after further investigation. Estimates of the claims have ranged from 100 million dollars to billions.

Chief defendants in the suits filed yesterday are the General Electric Co. and the Westinghouse Electric Corp., each named in 11 suits, and the Allis-Chalmer Manufacturing Co., named in nine.

Both G.E. and Westinghouse declared they believed their customers had received fair value for the prices paid.

Allis-Chalmers, located in West Allis, Wis., withheld comment.

All the defendants were among the 29 manufacturers which, along with 45 of their top executives were fined 1.9 million dollars in Philadelphia U.S. District Court last February. Seven jail terms and 25 suspended sentences were imposed.

G.E. and Westinghouse and their executives suffered almost half of the fines imposed at that time.

Civil Defense Change Made

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state yesterday reorganized its civil defense heirarchy to, in one official's words, "provide a more flexible organization to meet any attack."

The State Disaster Council approved a resolution setting up the state's cabinet of agency administrators as a Disaster Control Board.

Directly under the board was placed Bradford Crittenden, public safety administrator, who will direct over-all state emergency action.

The California Disaster Office, formerly in charge of over-all civil defense work, will serve as the planning and coordinating agency under Crittenden and the governor.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Against Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign ministers of the American republics will meet next month to consider economic and political sanctions against the Communist government of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The Jan. 10 meeting, site to be designated, was called yesterday by the Organization of American States. The OAS Council voted 14 to 2 for a Colombian resolution aimed straight at Cuba, although it didn't mention it by name.

Bright Picture

CHICAGO (UPI) — Federal housing administrator Robert C. Weaver painted a bright picture for home builders today but said the future would demand a better one.

Weaver predicted that construction would begin on between 1.4 and 1.5 million new dwelling units next year, an increase of 5 to 10 per cent over housing starts in 1961.

But he said in remarks prepared for delivery at the annual convention of the National Assn. of Home Builders that population increases would require two million homes a year by 1970.

Plead Guilty

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Six youths have pleaded guilty yesterday to felony conspiracy in the 15-month harassment of a San Francisco Jewish couple, will return to Superior Court Jan. 9 for probation report and sentence. Each could get up to three years imprisonment.

They were accused of participating in threatening phone calls, vandalism and general persecution of Mr. and Mrs. William Bowman. They said they did it for "kicks."

India Threatened

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Communist China has threatened to invade India's northeast frontier if India does not halt military activity in border territories more than 1,000 miles to the northwest, Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament today.

"Obviously," Nehru told a questioner, "if that is done, we shall resist and repel it."

Dominican Trouble

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Angry anti-government crowds stood off a band of about 20 hoodlums yesterday, thwarting an army-police attempt to whip up mob violence against the week-old general strike seeking to topple the regime of President Joaquin Balaguer.

The ragged ruffians, led by two uniformed policemen and an air force officer with a machine gun, were all that responded to army appeals to residents of Santo Domingo's slums to rise against the striking shopkeepers and loot their stores.

At least five persons were wounded by fragments from noise bombs hurled at the mobs.

Fs For Ducktail

PERRY, Ga. (AP)—That much-discussed ducktail haircut caused young Stanley Sorrells to fail in every subject at Perry High School.

The senior had been doing all right scholastically until the question of hair styles arose. His mother, Mrs. Walter C. Sorrells, said yesterday: "His teachers told him that he passed all right—but they said they had to give him Fs because he was suspended from school for 10 days."

No Flu Scare

ATLANTA (UPI)—There is no Asian flu epidemic in the United States, or even an outbreak at present, the U.S. Communicable Disease Center reported yesterday.

The CDC also said there was no shortage of flu shots.

The government health agency made the statements in denying published reports that the United States faces a flu epidemic.

At The Wall

BERLIN (AP) — The situation was normal along the Berlin wall again today after completion of formidable new Communist fortifications at the seven crossing points between West and East Berlin.

The East Germans finished work on new walls and tank obstacles at the checkpoints before nightfall and withdrew hundreds of troops that had guarded the 2,500 workmen.

San Rafael Council Rules Against West End Station

There'll be no service station where the narrow block between Fourth Street and Greenfield Avenue stub-ends at West End Avenue.

The San Rafael City Council so ruled last night, in voting unanimously, on motion of Councilmen Fred E. Jensen, to uphold the planning commission's denial of rezoning of a 9,800-square foot parcel in that location.

Rudolph Lang, who owns the land, and Gasoline Marketeers, Inc., who want to build a Wilshire station there, appealed the planning commission's turndown of rezoning from single residential to general commercial.

Attorney Bryan McCarthy appeared to represent Gasoline Marketeers, and attorney John G. Buresh, to represent Lang.

They contended a service station would be an ideal use for the land, that no one would build a home in that location, that "the smelly gas station of old is a thing of the past" and the one proposed would be a thing of beauty and offend neither the eyes, the ears, nor the nose. McCarthy showed photos of gas stations in other residential areas to support his argument.

But 10 residents of Greenfield Avenue took the diametrically opposite view, and contended that the locations shown in McCarthy's pictures were not comparable—and besides, the neighbors of those stations were not present and perhaps don't like them at all.

Chairman Norris Rawles of the city traffic committee reported the committee recommended unanimously against the rezoning on the basis that cars leaving the service station would foul traffic in an already-difficult intersection.

Buresh intimated the planning commission had not accorded the applicants a fair hearing. "I was surprised and shocked to have one of the planning commission members tell me before the meeting that he had made up his mind on this," said Buresh.

Retorted Councilman Jensen: "The planning commission has beeng going through this piece of property every two or three years for rezoning, so they knew the property very well." (The latest of several previous rezoning petitions, for limited commercial, was turned down last June.)

Creation of a city employees' safety committee, with the city manager as permanent chairman, was voted unanimously, on motion of Councilman Charles W. Aby. Each department is to have a representative on the committee Joseph Rodota, recreation director and temporary chairman, said an informal committee has been functioning for six or eight months but needs official status. Mayor McInnis noted that the accident rate among city employees doubled last year.

Also at last night's San Rafael Council meeting:

1. Harry Newell of Harry's Christmas Trees asked permission to place a few trees on sidewalks to call attention to their sale at the Marin Society for Crippled Children and Adults. City Atty. A. E. Bagshaw said the city could not legally grant such a right. Mayor McInnis suggested Newell get permission from merchants to put the displays on their property.

2. The council rejected a petition for installing and covering a culvert in the open ditch between Marquard and Dunand avenues beside the Miracle Mile, which Rawles said would cost $8,000 to $12,000. Rawles was directed to consider this, along with other open ditches in the city, for possible inclusion in next year's budget.

3. Resolution authorizing sale of bonds for White Oaks Assessment District 2 was approved.

4. Final map of Loch Lomond Unit 7 was approved, but the council was informed the final map of Graceland Park Subdivision, scheduled for presentation, had been withdrawn.

5. A petition by 18 residents that parking be prohibited on the north side of Laurel Place between Nye and Wilkins streets was referred to the traffic committee.

6. Hearing on an appeal by Dr. Craig R. Hope of 66 Balboa Avenue against planning commission turndown of a variance application was set for Dec. 18.

7. Mayor McInnis called an informal meeting, to discuss salaries of city employees, for 8 p.m. next Monday.

More than one million earthquakes shake our planet each year and not one of them can be predicted.

Lloyd Grandi of Marvelous Marin Realty Co.

The Smith draft provided county cost of $350 per patient per month charge on a five-year basis, or $350 the first year and $350 to $400 afterward in accordance with a cost of living index.

Fusselman deferred consideration and went on a fishing excursion after the names of Smith's unidentified clients, saying he had "heard stories that disturbed me" concerning their identity.

Smith said he first needed some sort of board commitment in "preliminary agreement that would enable my principals to obtain preliminary financing."

"I can't see why the board should commit itself," said Fusselman.

Grandi offered construction on a lease-back basis, saying "we have no blueprints because we want you to supply them" but promising an interest rate "no higher than the highest of any county bonds."

It then developed some of the supervisors had discussed going to Eureka for a look at a new $830,000 hospital Marin might take as a county nursing home model. The board decided to take the trip.

Special Meeting

Strawberry Recreation District trustees will hold a special meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Strawberry Point School, President C. G. Bush said today. On the agenda will be discussion of operations, maintenance and development of district properties and the special election to be held Jan. 9.

San Quentin Aide Jailed —'Favors For Convicts'

San Quentin Correctional Officer Philip Carter, 32, was jailed today on suspicion of doing illegal favors for prison convicts. He is scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court tomorrow to answer the misdemeanor charge.

Carter, who lives at 645 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur, was caught about 2:30 a.m. today with a letter from an inmate which he was going to mail, reported J. R. O'Brien, parole representative at the prison.

O'Brien said Carter admitted buying wallets from inmates against prison rules. Carter is a new correctional officer hired two months ago.

Carter was booked at Marin County Jail and freed on $525 bail.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety was awaiting a written report from the prison before he files a formal complaint.

trying to avoid the police.

California Highway Patrolmen Theodore McGuire and Angelino Corvino, notified by radio from the toll plaza, that a man had left a cab at the west end of the bridge, arrived in time to see the youth running alongside the rail and jump moments before they could catch him.

They said he shouted something at them as he jumped into the blackness, but neither officer could understand what he said.

Kennedy fell about 200 feet onto a patch of sand surrounded by boulders at the water's edge. Doctors said he probably fell on his elbows and buttocks, breaking his left arm, dislocating the other arm and suffering injuries to his lungs and kidneys.

According to Oakland police, the youth has a minor police record which, his uncle said, may account for his fear of the police. "He is a brilliant lad," Gardiner was quoted as saying. "He was planning to finish high school and get a diploma."

Police Officer Is Back On Job

Lt. Jay Fletcher returned to duty on the San Rafael police force yesterday after being absent over two months because of illness.

Fletcher suffered a heart attack Sept. 26.

He went back to his regular 4 p.m. to midnight shift yesterday, Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa announced.

Clerk Jones Back At Work

County Clerk George S. Jones, who was ill all last week, was back at work today.

"I feel fine," said Jones. "Feel like a two-year-old."

Fire Unit Votes Pay In Tiburon

Tiburon Fire Protection District commissioners last night voted to pay themselves $10 per meeting. The sum for each of the five commissioners will be effective this month and is not to exceed one meeting per month.

Secretary Kelly J. Wheeler said the commission used to be paid but the policy was discontinued two and one-half years ago because of lack of funds.

The commission also agreed to black top the area around the main firehouse on Tiburon Boulevard at a cost of $1,549.

The commission accepted the resignation of volunteer Fireman George Mantegani.

Larry Vogel of Belvedere was hired as fireman to succeed Clive Coverdale, who is resigning Dec. 15 to become a Larkspur fireman.

Vogel, who will be paid $425 per month, has been a part-time fireman, or "sleeper," at the Tiburon Fire Department for one year.

Two Suspended For School Row

Two Marin City youths, aged 15 and 16, were suspended from Tamalpais High School for a few days for fighting on school grounds yesterday noon.

Assistant Principal John George called the sheriff because the 15-year-old was almost uncontrollable and began fighting teachers who tried to stop the row.

2 Work Contracts Let For Drake High Jobs

Tamalpais Union High School District trustees last night awarded two contracts for additions to Sir Francis Drake High School.

Contract was awarded to Zoellner Construction Co. of Ross for a covered eating area and locker room. The Zoellner bid of $110,823 was low of six.

Contract was awarded to Fostmeier Construction Co. of Petaluma for a teacher workroom. That bid of $30,500 was low of four.

The trustees hired Boris Arnov of El Cerrito to replace mathematics teacher Carole Baldwin, who resigned Nov. 20. Arnov will teach at Tamalpais High.

The board authorized four part-time subject area instructional supervisors to be hired for the 1962-63 school year. The areas covered will be mathematics, social studies, English and foreign languages.

The trustees adjourned in memory of two former board members who recently died, Mrs. O. W. Jones and Mrs. Susan Smith.

School Unit Discusses 'Triangle

The San Jose School District board met in a four-hour executive session last night to discuss the future of the two teachers involved in a love triangle in Tamalpais Valley.

The board will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the administration building to announce its decision.

Meeting with the board were the two teachers involved: Mrs. Elaine McCardell, 40, of 366 Tennessee Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, a teacher at San Jose Intermediate School, and Denton S. Winn, 37, of Petaluma, a teacher at Lynwood Elementary School. Also present were County Counsel F. Warren McGuire and sheriff's inspector Bowen Bridges.

The closed meeting lasted from 8 p.m. to midnight, according to Supt. Phillip W. Schneider.

Charles McCardell has been charged with assaulting Winn, whom he said he found in his estranged wife's bedroom early on Nov. 26.

CONGO

prepared an ambush of U.N. headquarters.

Observers said a path was cleared through a roadblock on the road to the airport, the chief area of fighting.

The sound of mortar and other firing from several directions started a panic exodus from this capital of secessionist Katanga Province.

Contrary to U.N. reports that all Katanga ministers also had fled, Kimba held a news conference with all ministers present.

In London, it was reported that Irish Gen. Sean McKeown has asked to be released Dec. 31 as U.N. military commander in the Congo.

"My decision was not because of developments in Katanga," McKeown said in an hour-long stopover at London airport from his Dublin home to Leopoldville.

"I had no wish to make a career in the United Nations," he added.

Annex Plan For School On Agenda

A request from Loma Verdi residents to annex their part of the San Jose School District to the Dixie School District will be discussed at a special meeting of Dixie trustees at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the district office, 4775 Redwood Highway.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis said the request was received last week.

Unification of San Jose and Novato School districts has been turned down three times —the last time on Nov. 22, when Novato voters rejected the proposal. In two previous elections, in January and September, 1959, votes from Loma Verde defeated the unification.

Petitions for annexation of San Jose District to the Novato District are now being circulated.

Willis said part of the special meeting tomorrow night will be an executive session, for conference with the county counsel on a suit to obtain a school site at Las Gallinas Avenue and Miller Court, Marinwood.

employed as a supervisor at the prison; Walter H. Ehlers of 40 Tamal Vista Drive, Corte Madera, whose name was drawn to replace Kendall and who said, when asked if he had a family, "I have one wife."

Mrs. Suzanne Marriott of 40 Marine Drive, San Rafael; Mrs. Vera Cosumano of 235 Bolinas Road, Fairfax, and Mrs. Beatrice Denton of Marin City.

All told the attorneys that if the situation were reversed and they, instead of Pershina, were on trial, they would be willing to have their case tried "by a person such as myself."

Challenges of the jurors was expected to begin this afternoon.

If found guilty, Pershina faces a maximum $1,000 fine and six months in the county jail. He is free on $525 bail.

CHARLES A. BRAAM
Funeral set tomorrow

OBITUARIES

Mass Slated For Deputy C. A. Braam

Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Charles Anthony Braam, 29, assistant chief civil deputy of the Marin County sheriff's office, who was killed when his car overturned early Sunday on the Greenbrae Bridge.

Braam was born March 22, 1932 in Milwaukee, Wis. He served in the Air Force from July 18, 1950, to Nov. 1, 1953, being discharged at Hamilton Air Force Base with the rank of staff sergeant. He had been a deputy sheriff since that time.

He resided at 25 Victor Court, Novato.

He belonged to the Novato Council of The Knights of Columbus and the Marin County Peace Officers Assn.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia; three daughters, Eileen, 7; Kathleen, 3; and Christy, 2; and a son, Robert, 6; a brother, Robert Braam of Wisconsin; his mother, Mrs. Katherine Braam of Los Angeles, and his father, Henry Braam of Wisconsin.

Requiem High Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at the Redwood Funeral Chapel. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

RAYMOND LOGAN

Funeral services for Capt. Raymond T. Logan will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the McAvoy O'Hara Co.-Evergreen Mortuary, San Francisco.

Logan, 59, in charge of the Golden Gate Bridge toll collection force, died of a heart attack at his San Francisco home yesterday morning.

Interment will be private.

WILLIAM FAHEY

Retired salesman William Fahey, 69, died today in a local hospital after a long illness.

He was the father of Mrs. Mary Washington of Terra Linda.

A native of Ohio, he and his wife, Eunice, came to Marin County in 1956. They made their home with their daughter at 201 Orange Blossom Lane.

He was a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

He is survived by his wife and daughter.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home, Novato. Contributions to the American Cancer Society are preferred.

G. EMMANUELI

A Requiem Mass for retired chef Guiseppe Emmanueli will be celebrated at 9 a.m. tomorrow in St. Rita's Church, Fairfax.

Emmanueli, 79, died yesterday at a local rest home after a short illness.

The Rosary will be recited tonight at 8 p.m. in the Keaton chapel, San Rafael. The funeral cortege will leave the Keaton Mortuary tomorrow at 8:40 a.m. Interment will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

MARY WALDMANN

Mary Fried Waldmann, 84, died early today at the home of a friend at Waldo Park, Sausalito, after long illness.

A native of Germany, Mrs. Waldmann had lived in Marin 23 years, and resided with Mrs. Emily Fendler at Waldo Park. She had previously lived on Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

Surviving her are two sons, Jack Waldmann of San Bruno and George Waldmann of Hayward.

Services will be held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at the Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley. Inurnment will be at Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Colma. The family requests that tributes be made in contributions to the American Cancer Society.

DEATHS

WALDMANN — In Sausalito, Dec. 5, 1961, Mary Fried, dearly beloved wife of the late Carl Henry Waldmann, mother of Jack Waldmann of San Bruno, George Waldmann of Hayward, and the late Carl Fried, aunt of Walter E. Lutz of Sausalito, cousin of Louese Guder of Petaluma, dear friend of Emily Fendler of Sausalito; a native of Germany; aged 84.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral services Thursday, Dec. 7 at 10:30 a.m. at the Memorial Chapels of Russell and Gooch, 270 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley. Inurnment, Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Colma. Contributions to the American Cancer Society preferred. (12/5-6)

EMMANUELI—In San Anselmo, Dec. 4, 1961, Guiseppe G. Emmanueli, beloved husband of Louise Emmanueli, uncle of Marino Bassi of New York, cousin of the late Gino Costella. A native of Italy. Age 79 years.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral Wednesday, Dec. 6, 1961, at 8:40 a.m. from Keaton's, Fifth Avenue and E Street, San Rafael, thence to St. Rita's Church, Fairfax, where at 9 a.m. a Requiem Mass will be offered for the repose of his soul. Interment Mt. Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael. Recitation of the Rosary at 8 p.m. tonight at the Keaton chapel. (12/5)

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY
Natural Marin Beauty
for those who've loved our county
The beauty of Mount Tamalpais Cemetery is typically Marin. Here in a setting of soft, rolling hills and lovely vistas are Marin's native trees and shrubs, accented by beautiful lawns and flowers.
For over 90 years leading Marin families have chosen Mount Tamalpais as a final resting place. One good reason is the substantial endowment fund which assures the care and maintenance of this cemetery in the years ahead.
We invite your inspection of this peaceful site. Our staff is always ready to answer your questions and describe Mount Tamalpais facilities.

Education Unit Loses T.V. Cole

Theodore V. Cole of Novato, an original member of the elective Marin County Board of Education when it was formed in 1956, resigned last night.

In a letter delivered to Mrs. Adele J. Alpers, board president, Cole wrote:

"For the past few months I have been finding it increasingly difficult to devote adequate time to County Board of Education duties because of the requirements of my business and the evening course I am taking. I can not see any let-up in this situation ahead.

"For this reason I feel that the time has come to resign from this board, to take effect Dec. 31.

"I am sure that all of the members of this board know that I will continue my interest in education for the children of this county, and that I wish you well in continuation of your work."

Cole was present as Mrs. Alpers read the resignation and added: "I'm exceedingly sorry; we hate to lose you."

Supt. Virgil S. Hollis, with whom Cole has often been at odds, noted "he's only missed one meeting since being on the board."

THEODORE V. COLE
Quits county board

The resignation came as a surprise although Cole had indicated earlier he might step out. His term runs until next June 30.

Mrs. Alpers appointed a committee of board members, composed of Harry N. Press, chairman, Mrs. Alce Ann Rust and Robert B. Randolph, to screen applicants for appointment to Cole's unexpired term. The committee will accept either applications or suggestions of possible candidates from Cole's Novato district until Jan. 15. Names should be submitted to the county school superintendent's office.

Sausalito Trimmings At Discount

The Sausalito Chamber of Commerce announced today the names of four firms who are allowing one-third discount on Christmas lights and decoration materials to merchants and boat owners planning to enter the chamber's Christmas decoration program.

Firms who will give the discount, between 4 and 6 p.m. today and tomorrow are the Glen 5 and 10 store, Sausalito Hardware and Plumbing Co., Sausalito Pharmacy and the Trade Fair.

Prize of a three-day, two-night stay for two in Las Vegas will be given for the best decorated store, and a three-day, two-night stay for two at Squaw Valley's Olympic Village will be awarded for the best decorated boat.

Money Taken At Coffee Shop

The front door to the Bel Aire Coffee Shop on Tiburon Boulevard in Bel Aire was broken down and $52 taken from the cash register and from behind the safe yesterday, manager Max Keeler of 278 East Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, reported to the sheriff's office.

BOARD REJECTS 'HERITAGE' FILM

The Marin County Board of Education last night firmly rejected the film strip, "Our American Heritage," for use in schools of the county.

The film, which was shown to the board two months ago, has been widely criticized as being unfit for school use because it is derogatory of the U.S. Supreme Court and its justices.

Board member Harry N. Press brought the matter before the board last night. He said the teaching of American democracy "is one of our most important subjects today." But he contended it must be "positive instruction" and not designed to tear down American institutions.

Press read extensive quotations on teaching about communism from a policy adopted only yesterday by state school officials meeting in San Francisco. He insisted, "This film strip is not good teaching material: there must be better available."

However, he praised County Supt. Virgil S. Hollis for bringing the film to the board's attention and said he hoped Hollis would continue to bring to the board similar material.

President Adele J. Alpers added she had been concerned because the film has been shown to adult groups and all that could be told the audiences was that the county board had neither approved nor disapproved it. She urged its rejection.

Press's motion passed by 5-to-0 vote with two abstentions. OB Cavanaugh abstained because "I don't know enough about it," and Arnold Dolcini abstained because he had been absent when the film was shown and had not seen it.

The board also:

1. Adopted 56 new supplementary text books, including "The Russian Alphabet Book" for sixth to eighth graders.
2. Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Sue Fisher as secretary in the educational services department, and approved employment of Mrs. C. W. (Elizabeth) Roth of San Anselmo to replace her at $350 per month.
3. Was told that Rudolph Kupfer, assistant superintendent who underwent surgery six weeks ago, has returned to his San Rafael home and is recuperating, although he will probably not be back to work for some time.
4. Set Jan. 29 for opening of bids for purchase of school supplies.
5. Agreed to meet next on Tuesday, Jan. 2, rather than the regular first Monday of the month, because Jan. 1 is a holiday.

Recreation Unit Warned On Channel

The Army Engineer's seven-million-dollar flood control plan for Corte Madera Creek will result in a nine-mile concrete-lined channel with no public access, from Fairfax to Greenbrae, the Marin Council of Recreation Commissioner was told last night.

Willis B. Evans, fisheries supervisor of the California Department of Fish and Game, issued the warning as he urged the council to work for development of the mouth of the creek as a public recreation area.

Evans, speaking on the last day set by the Army Corps of Engineers for filing public comment on the project, said his agency had been studying the project for more than a year.

"We did not feel at liberty to comment on the recreational aspects of the project until the plans were officially announced," said Evans.

He said present flood control plans for the creek eliminate public access along the proposed channel route. However, it will be several years before the project is a reality and the planners are still willing to discuss the recreational area, he reported.

The State Department of Fish and Game would be happy to work with any group in maintaining and assuring public access to this area, Evans said.

"We realize that this is primarily a flood control project but the addition of park and recreational facilities could only serve to enhance the project," he said.

All but 23 miles of Oregon coast is publicly owned.

Community Property Sought In Divorce

Community property including two San Francisco apartment houses is sought in a divorce suit filed in Marin Superior Court yesterday by Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Weiss of 22 Clyde Avenue, San Rafael, against real estate man Ferdinand F. Weiss.

She also seeks custody of her two children.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori signed an order directing Weiss to appear in court at 2 p.m. Dec. 18 to show cause why he should not pay her reasonable support money and why he should not be restrained from dissipating the property.

Her suit charging "great mental and physical pain and suffering" asks custody of their daughter, Victoria Carolyn, 16, and son, Ferdinand Stephen, 14, and all their community property except his business in San Francisco.

The suit filed by attorney Samuel W. Gardiner charges that her husband conspired with other persons to deprive her of her share of the community property.

It says this includes the home and three lots in San Rafael, five lots at Bolinas Beach, apartment houses at 1370 California Street and 1120 Hyde Street, San Francisco, the Casa Rosa Motel at Santa Rosa, two 1959 Chrysler Imperial cars, an interest and equity in a home in San Francisco, and bank accounts and securities of undetermined value.

The Weisses married in San Rafael June 17, 1944, and separated March 14, 1958.

Three Retire From Air Force At HAFB

Two lieutenant colonels and a master sergeant retired Friday at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Lt. Col. Henry B. Crownover, chief of the 28th Air Division security and law enforcement department, retired after more than 20 years of service.

Colonel Crownover, a native of San Antonio, Tex., received a B.S. degree in agricultural science from New Mexico State University in 1936, and at the same time, received his commission in the infantry reserve. He has been in active service ever since except for a five-year period. During World War II he served as a pilot and commander.

He holds the American defense service medal, American campaign medal, World War II victory medal, occupation medal (Germany) with Berlin airlift device, medal for humane action, national defense service medal and Air Force longevity service award with four bronze oak leaf clusters.

He is married and has been residing on the base.

Lt. Col. John C. Meadows, assistant deputy of civil engineers of the 28th Air Division, entered military service after graduation in engineering from Georgia Tech. He was born in Powder Springs, Ga.

During World War II he served in the Asiatic-Pacific and European theaters in the corps of engineers.

Colonel Meadows' awards include the American defense service medal, Army commendation medal, Asiatic-Pacific campaign medal, World War II victory medal, occupation medal (Germany) with Berlin air lift device, national defense service medal.

M/Sgt. James Pinske, flight operations and training inspector with the office of inspector general, 28th Air Division, retired after a career which included service in the American theater during World War II.

Sergeant Pinske, a native of Chicago, has received these decorations and awards: good conduct medal, American defense medal, American campaign medal, World War II victory medal, national defense service medal, Korean service medal, United Nations service medal, and Air Force longevity service award.

Panel Slated On Juvenile Welfare

Juvenile welfare will be the subject of a public forum at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the cafeteria at the Novato High School, sponsored the high school parents club.

J. P. Bowdall, supervisor of Marin County probation Department, Mrs. Annie Jamison, social worker in charge of foster home placements, and Roy McLaren, Novato police chief, will be on the panel.

Those attending are asked to bring a canned food offering for Christmas baskets, the club announced.

First Tax

CHELSEA, Mass. (UPI)—What may have been the first withholding tax in history has come to light here. Records show that when Chelsea Naval Hospital opened in 1836, U.S. sailors were paying 20 cents a month —withheld from their pay—to finance its operation.

COUNTY'S FARM BUREAU HITS MEMBERS QUOTA

For the second straight year, Marin County was the first county in the state to reach its membership quota for 1962 in the farm bureau, Donald McIsaac, president, reported yesterday to the bureau directors.

Marin County's quota is 355 members, McIsaac said. This goal was reached on Nov. 28, he said.

The effects of the county and state building codes on the farmers will be discussed at the Jan. 8 meeting of farm bureau directors.

Belvedere Continues Food Handlers Study

Decision on adoption of an ordinance requiring health inspection of food handlers was postponed until its next meeting by the Belvedere City Council last night to enable council members to study the proposal.

City Manager Britton Rey contended the taxpayers in incorporated areas would be subject to double taxation if the county ordinance were adopted.

Rey said the taxpayers are already contributing to the cost of operating the county health department. An additional tax load would result because a fee to inspect the restaurants would be charged by the department, Rey said.

Councilman H. Nordmark Williams, who has studied the proposal, recommended passing the ordinance but requesting the city health officer, Dr. Donovan O. Cooke, to conduct the required inspection. He pointed out that chest X-rays and tuberculin tests would be at the expense of the restaurant owner.

The council authorized approval of a request to the state Department of Public Works that 40 per cent of Belvedere's gasoline tax funds be allotted for maintenance purposes.

Evan T. Pugh was reappointed a member of the Marin Mosquito Abatement District board.

San Rafael Asks For Quick Hearing On NWP Service

The City of San Rafael today asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for a quick hearing and decision on Northwestern Pacific Railroad's petition to permanently abandon 2.46 miles of its main line in San Rafael.

The city council unanimously approved last night a resolution asking for an early hearing, and directed City Atty. A. E. Bagshaw to get it in the mails today. Copies were ordered sent to Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, Sen. Clair M. Engle, and Rep. Clem Miller.

The resolution recites that "in excess of 75 years, Northwestern Pacific Railroad and its predecessors exercised exclusive franchise to provide San Rafael with rail service," but since the Puerto Suello tunnel fire of last July 20 the railroad has made no move to restore service. Instead, it filed on Aug. 18 a petition for abandonment.

The resolution sets forth that the city has been informed a hearing in the normal course of events would not be held until spring, and decision would not be rendered until several months later.

"Meantime," it goes on, "much of the city's business and industry will suffer such handicap it will terminate or locate elsewhere."

The resolution asks the ICC to classify the NWP application as urgent, set an early date for hearing, and direct the railroad prior to the hearing to make all data bearing on its application available to the city.

Marinite Chairman Of Engineer Week

Dion Ramsey-Raisan, 620 Tamarack Drive, San Rafael, is one of 10 Bay Area engineers who have been designated zone chairmen of the scholarship committee for Engineers' Week.

Committee chairman Harry Betaque said the job of each zone chairman is to help select the outstanding science or mathematics student at each high school in the five-county Bay Area to compete for more than $2,000 in scholarships.

Zone winners will be guests of honor at the annual Engineers' Week banquet on Feb. 21 at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco. Of the 10 zone winners, three will receive cash scholarships.

Motor Boat Ban At Lake Nicasio Asked

Marin County residents' preference for the peaceful life was brought to attention of county supervisors twice yesterday.

Supervisor J. Walter Blair interpreted the wishes of Tiburon constituents when a letter was read from the Marin Rod and Gun Club requesting a ramp and pier at state expense as a Paradise Park project.

"People in general don't want a boat ramp," demurred Blair. He said many Tiburon residents had made clear they were not eager to have their quiet disturbed by the sound of outboard motors.

Then a letter was read from the Marin Audubon Society, requesting a ban on motor boats on newly created Lake Nicasio. Emphasis should rather be put, said the society, on encouraging use of the reservoir by wild birds.

The supervisors decided that as to Paradise Park, a report from the parks and recreation commission would be in order, and since the commission meets tomorrow, this matter was continued to Dec. 11.

Blair said that Lake Nicasio is a project of the Marin Municipal Water District and the board decided to forward the Audubon Society letter to the district board.

Christmas Ball Found Destroyed

Evidently someone in San Rafael doesn't like Christmas.

FIGHT MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY

SUPERVISORS ROUNDUP

Board Approves New '2nd-Step' Employee

County Auditor-Controller Leon A. deLisle yesterday won board of supervisors' approval —for the second time in a week —of hiring a new employee at the second step in the salary scale.

Robert J. Homage was approved for an accounting-auditing job at $506 monthly. Usual beginning pay for the job is $483.

Asst. Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell said in a letter that, in spite of widespread efforts to attract qualified accountant-auditors, only three living in Marin County had appeared. Each was working for more than the county's first-step pay, he reported.

Probation Officer Walter H. Busher lost out in two efforts, last week and the week preceding, to win second-step pay for Mrs. Catherine Wolcott, stenographer-clerk. He based his fight on the second of two grounds on which the supervisors are authorized to grant special placement on the pay scale: outstanding qualifications of the person employed.

1. Appointed Oscar J. Durand as draftsman, and Katherine P. Moore as intermediate steno-clerk, in the assessor's office at $461 and $335 a month, respectively; Joseph G. Kelly as deputy sheriff at $420, and Alvin M. Wright as janitor in the public works department at $335.

2. Set for 2 p.m. Dec. 26 opening bids for $950,000 face value Dixie School District bonds, after deciding not to take Christmas week off but if possible to concentrate all business in one session.

3. Authorized the purchasing agent to accept a $4,977.50 bid by Diebold, Inc., of San Francisco to furnish a civic center money chest for the tax collector's office.

4. Told the administrator to arrange for one or two civic center guided tours for county employees sometime after Jan. 1.

5. Asked County Fire Chief Charles Reilley to investigate need for additional San Geronimo Valley fire hydrants as requested by the residents' association.

6. Heard from Dr. John C. Siemens, director of Novato Hospital, that there have been hazards in transferring indigent obstetrical patients to Marin General Hospital as is now required; told Administrator Alan Bruce to investigate possibilities of an obstetrical contract with the Novato hospital.

Fluorescent Microscope Equipment Is Approved

County Health Officer Carolyn B. Albrecht was authorized by the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday to start wheels turning for acquisition of flourescent antibody microscope equipment.

What this means, it developed, is gadgetry to see those little bugs better. Dr. Albrecht said it would help combat bacteriological warfare.

The lab expert, after due training, provided free by the state, is able to turn on a lot of lights from various directions and find out in a hurry whether a microscope slide bears dangerous material.

Dr. Albrecht said the proposed equipment gives "rapid bacteriological identification" not only helping diagnosis of streptococcal, gonococcal and rabies infections, but "part of a rapid disease-warning system essential in defense against biological warfare."

Dr. Albrecht said federal matching funds are available for purchase of the equipment to the extent of half the cost, but promptness was urged because other health departments are after the money and could squeeze Marin out.

The board appropriated $997.74, to be matched by an equal federal amount.

Conspiracy Hearing Set

Motions for a new trial and probation report for Forrest Seter of Mill Valley and two other men found guilty of conspiracy were continued in Sacramento Superior Court yesterday to Jan. 4.

Seter, J. L. Levitt and Wallace Lund, both of San Francisco, were found guilty last month of soliciting money to combat juvenile delinquency and using the money for other purposes.

All were officials of the California Law Enforcement Officers Assn., a group they admitted had no official status. Motion for new trial will be heard by Judge Murle C. Shreck.

Sanitary District Board Will Meet

Tiburon Sanitary District board members decided last night to hold a special meeting next Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the district office to discuss personnel.

President Randolph J. Esplin said added personnel will be needed to work at the new treatment plant being constructed at Paradise Drive and Mar West.

Ross Council Approves New Zoning Law

After eight months of discussion, the Ross Town Council, sitting as a planning commission, last night adopted a new zoning ordinance and new zoning map.

A town council meeting to adopt the ordinance and map will be held Dec. 20, clerk Carroll Synker said.

Approved by the planning commission were three street name changes: Pearl Avenue to Walnut Avenue; Redwood and East Redwood Avenues to Wellington Avenue, and Upper Upper Road to Upper Road West.

The group changed zoning designations in Winship Park, so that the area generally east of Madera and Baywood Avenues will consist of lots of minimum size of 20,000 square feet; while the area to the west will be of lots of no less than 10,000 square feet.

Drake Student Hurt In Crash

A Sir Francis Drake High School student suffered minor injuries when his automobile overturned yesterday a mile west of Fairfax.

Nathan Larrabee Lester, 17, of San Geronimo Valley Drive, Woodacre, was westbound on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at 3:30 p.m. He said that as another car was passing him, he saw a truck coming. He swerved to the right shoulder in an effort to avert a collision. His car skidded, crossed the road and capsized, without touching either car or truck.

He was treated at Marin General Hospital for a cut finger and bruised left leg.

Corte Madera Rezone Item Is Put Off

Corte Madera Town Councilman Raymond De Young last night tried in vain to start rezoning procedures in part of the town.

De Young asked the town council to consider rezoning part of the area next to the Corte Madera Creek off Lucky Drive to a more restrictive commercial zoning than it new has.

He said the only reason it was rezoned from limited commercial to its present status was to permit Lee Brothers to build a supermarket on the property. The firm abandoned its plan. He said the original zoning, as outlined on the town master plan, should be reinstated.

The other four councilmen wanted time to study the matter before committing themselves. The item was not on the agenda and was brought up by De Young at the close of the meeting. De Young's motion to start rezoning procedures died for lack of a second.

In other business, the town council:

1. Adopted an ordinance setting the speed limit at 25 miles per hour on Tamalpais Drive from the Highway 101 interchance to Sausalito Street. The remaining part of Tamalpais Drive, from Sausalito Street to Redwood Avenue, already has a limit of 25 miles per hour. The council agreed to set a penalty of not more than $100 fine and not more than 30 days in the county jail for violating the new limit.

2. Appointed Mason O. Feudner of 58 Spindrift Passage to the park and recreation commission for a term expiring June 1, 1965.

3. Awarded contract to V. Maggiora and Son, Inc., of Sausalito for additional work on the Paradise Drive drainage project at $1,300.

4. Was informed by Town Clerk Naydeen Penny she had received legal papers on the intention to circulate an initiative petition by citizens for a town swimming pool. Colthurst questioned if the pool could be a "private, public facility" and was told by Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis that out-of-town residents could be required to pay a larger fee for the pool's use.

5. Decided to keep a report on the Bay Area Rapid Transit District on each council agenda until the question of rapid transit for Marin is solved.

6. Approved a lot line change request by Tim W. O. Donoghue Jr. for construction of a duplex on Montecito Avenue just south of the Larkspur-Corte Madera School.

Funds For Roads Going To County

Apportionment of $101,855 in state and federal funds to Marin County for construction of county roads included in the federal aid secondary system was announced today by the State Department of Public Works.

The county's share of more than 13 million dollars alloted to the state for 1962-63 consists of $60,970 in federal money and $40,885 from the state highway budget.

Expert Says Bay In Grave Danger

San Francisco Bay is in danger of being reduced to a large river unless definite action is initiated to preserve it, the Marin Council of Recreation Commissioners was told last night.

William Penn Mott Jr., Oakland parks and recreation director, told the commissioners that a recent study of the Army Corps of Engineers showed that 75 per cent of the Bay consists of shallow water subject to land fill.

Already business interests are studying the report with an eye towards land fill and industrial use, said Mott.

"Unless we think of the Bay as another green belt and act to preserve it, San Francisco Bay will end up as being nothing more than a large river," Mott said.

The ideal way, said Mott, is for regional seashore development as well as hilltop park development.

Mott emphasized that there must be three prerequisites for any park development program: (1) designing parks for maximum use that are both colorful and creative in design; (2) public involvement in the park program, and (3) finding ways of securing funds outside the community tax base.

In the discussion period following his talk Mott answered one question by saying that the national and state park development programs do not preclude county responsibility in development recreational areas.

Unless a park and recreation program is developed now, Marin County may find itself without the necessary open space needed for such a program, he warned.

Army Questions Board About Saucelito Canal

Army engineers are willing to investigate dredging of Saucelito Canal in Richardson Bay as a possible federal project, but want to know something about Marin County supervisors' legal authority and financial responsibility.

They seemed not to have given much thought to the issues raised, and hastily decided to continue the matter to this afternoon.

Morrison said the engineers "will be pleased to investigate the dredging of the Saucelito Canal project to determine the likelihood of a federal small navigation project under Section 107 of the River and Harbor Act of 1960 . . ."

Morrison said as initial step it would be necessary to get authorization to prepare a preliminary report.

Pending receipt of such authorization "we would appreciate a statement relative to the legal authority of the board of supervisors, and of financial capability and willingness to cooperate in assuming responsibility for all costs in excess of the $200,000 federal limitation, including investigation costs," Morrison said.

Brakes Slammed On —Woman Is Injured

Mrs. Elizabeth Mary Skinner, 44, of 20 Marquard Avenue, San Rafael, suffered a bruished forehead last night when her head hit the instrument board as her husband slammed on the brakes of their car last night in a parking lot.

Skinner said he was entering the lot at the Montecito Shopping Center when another car suddenly backed out of a parking space in front of him. He told San Rafael police he would take his wife to their family physician.

Restaurant Is Approved For Tiburon

Tiburon will have another restaurant, it was decided yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The restaurant, to be located at 2000 Paradise Drive in a converted residence, was approved for applicant Kirby Atterbury after he presented a parking plan for 24 automobiles at 1650 Tiburon Boulevard.

Atterbury said he would provide bus service from the restaurant, about one-quarter of a mile distant. There is no parking space at the restaurant.

An eight-unit motel on the east side of the Point Reyes-Invesness road about one mile north of Drakes View Drive was approved. Plans will be subject to architectural approval.

Philip B. Lygren was given an excavation permit to clear and grade for proposed streets for subdivision in Kent Woodlands.

Plans for conversion of a residence into a retail store and real estate office on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard east of College Avenue, in Kentfield were approved. The application was from George E. Fossey.

Continued to Dec. 18 were the following:

1. A request by Freda Hofmann to rezone a lot on South Knoll Boulevard south of Tiburon Boulevard from suburban agricultural to multiple residential.

2. A request by Eugene C. Wheary for approval of a tentative map of a three-acre subdivision adjoining Rolling Hills Unit No. 1.

3. A request by Eichler Homes Inc. to rezone 16 acres on Lucas Valley Road west of the county farm from agricultural to planned community.

The commission continued to Jan. 22 action on a letter from developer Gerald C. Hoyt asking for alternative use of property designated as a school site in Marinwood. The Dixie School District has not purchased the land although it has been set aside for schools.

SURPRISE!—"All shook up" by her good fortune, Mrs. Herbert Winter of Fairfax receives $50 check from assistant publisher Wishard A. Brown (center) and classified manager Carl Lehman, for placing 250,000th classified ad of 1961 in the Independent-Journal. The advertisement is reproduced today in the large display ad of which Brown and Lehman hold a proof. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

250,000TH

$50 Check For Classified Ad

Two Fairfax brothers probably will be deluged with calls to do carpenter work.

This can be expected as the result of advertising which not only cost them nothing, but for which they got paid $50.

This came about because Mrs. Herbert Winter of the Marin Town and Country Club walked into the Independent-Journal office in San Rafael yesterday afternoon to place a classified advertisement.

She wrote: "Two first-class carpenters. Additions, alterations, carports, $2.50 per hour."

"How much will that be? she asked the clerk.

Then she suddenly found herself the center of attention.

The advertisement she placed was the 250,000th classified ad placed with the I-J this year. There was a $50 prize for it.

As classified manager Carl Lehman and assistant publisher Wishard A. Brown got Mrs. Winter's name on a check, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Gordon Winter of the same address, arrived. She had been parking the car.

The carpenters are the husbands of the two.

The ad is reproduced in a display ad today with Mrs. Winter's picture.

Lehman said that last year—the first time the I-J reached the of 250,000 mark—the 250,000th ad was placed on Dec. 31.

McGuffey Reader Teaches Us About The Fourth 'R'

NOTE: Today's editorial is reprinted from the December issue of "Nation's Business magazine.)

William Holmes McGuffey is again educating the American people.

Today he has added a fourth "R" to the Readin', Ritin' and 'Rithmetic which were the standard curriculum in his days of active teaching. Our need for the new course is urgent . . .

The first two McGuffey Eclectic Readers appeared in 1836. Four others followed.

For 60 years or so the books had almost universal acceptance. Some 122 million were sold . . .

Recently the Lakewood school board in Twin Lakes, Wisc., proposed to replace more recent textbooks with the McGuffey Readers.

The Lakewood school superintendent and a phalanx of parents objected. The superintendent called the books obsolete; the parents called them too difficult.

They appealed to the state superintendent of schools who agreed with them. He ruled that the McGuffey Readers cannot be used as regular textbooks. If the board had ignored his decision, he could have withheld state funds from the Lakewood school.

At this point, Professor McGuffey's new course begins. The first lesson is that whatever government agency gives communities money to maintain standards, must first set the standards and then use its most effective means to enforce them. The most effective means is the denial of money.

Those who maintain that federal money for schools would not mean federal intervention in local affairs are, in effect, suggesting that the federal government would willingly neglect its duty.

Professor McGuffey's second lesson has to do with the right of appeal. Today opponents of the Lakewood board have only to go to Madison, the state capital, to be heard. If their school money came from Washington, appeal would be more costly, more cumbersome and get far less immediate action.

If Washington refused to intervene, as supporters of federal school money insist it would, they could not be heard at all.

If, as is likely, the federal money were distributed through Madison, another layer of authority would be added. The Lakewood board would appeal the Madison decision to the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Both sides would urge their congressmen to intercede. Time and money would be wasted and the education of Lakewood children would wait.

Professor McGuffey would find all this incredible. He understood the need to teach children to read, but when he died in 1873 schools and citizens needed no textbooks in the course he is teaching today.

Professor McGuffey's fourth "R" is Responsibility.

RADIOS FOR VANISHING BEAR

Grizzly bears will be sporting transistor radios in Yellowstone National Park before very long.

Conservationists are fearful that the big animals may be on the road to extinction. To keep a closer check on them, park officials plan to equip the bears with sets that will transmit a continuous signal over a 5-mile radius.

Before they can go on the air, the grizzlies have to be caught. They are lured by bacon, honey and pineapple juice to a spot where they are given a harmless drug and then wired for sound.

Many attempts have been made to conserve the goods of nature, whether they be in the animal kingdom or in the realm of soil and forest reserves.

Even more important is the preservation and spread of the spiritual and intellectual gifts that God has granted us.

Use your own powers to the fullest in a way that will glorify the Creator and assist your fellow men.

"What have you that you have not received?" (1 Corinthians 4:7)

Make me see the value, O Holy Spirit, of building on the heritage of the past to make a better future.

Pledge Of Lives For Declaration

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In a letter to the editor on 11/28, Miss Geraldine Edick took the I-J to task for being, amongst other failings, vicious in your anti-Khrushchev cartoons.

We are advised by the writer that we will have to give up much we are accustomed to.

Will what we have to give up be the deprivations similar to those in bondage? The Latvians, Estonians, Lithuanians, Poles, Hungarians, East Germans, Czechoslovakians, and much of Asia.

If this giving up appears an exaggeration to us, it is not so to the people of Central Europe and Asia. They know what they had to give up for bondage is their daily existence.

Our founding fathers would not accept peace at the price of chains and slavery. With these honorable men the closing words of the Declaration of Independence should be those of all Americans:

"And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortune, and our sacred honor."

Why The Hate Of Red China?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Fresh from having attended a film and lecture sponsored by the Marin Freedom Forum, I am perplexed by the atmosphere engendered there. Why are some people so frantic about keeping Red China out of the U. N.? Why is HATE being instilled in us?

The film shown, "Red China—Outlaw," was surely as biased and distorted a film as I have ever seen. Scenes purporting to show Red China atrocities had no documentation, and, if my memory serves me right, they were the same films that in another age worked us up into a frenzy about Japanese atrocities in Manchuria, 20 odd years ago.

Considering the fact that for many years no Americans (with the exception of the Korea prisoners' mothers and one or two other people) have been allowed by our State Department to visit China, we certainly seem to know a lot of BAD things that are happening there and a dearth of GOOD things. Why is this?

Why are we not allowed to travel through China? Why do United States senators and congressmen lend their names to these HATE programs? What is the purpose of maintaining an impenetrable wall of ignorance between us and the Red Chinese?

Only one man there, to my way of thinking, had a legitimate fear about the consequences of seating Red China in the U. N., and he was Patrick Sun, Nationalist China consul. He would be out of a job.

Can't Permit Chinese To Starve

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

How can we be sure that the people of Red China are starving? Their government seems to have plenty of grain to barter with Russia for weapons and heavy machinery, to Czechoslovakia for the same purpose (it is Communist doctrine that Communism can only come into being in an industrial society), to Ceylon in behalf of Red programs of economic penetration, and to Cuba for the same purpose.

The situation does not, apparently, warrant conversion of lands planted to the opium poppy (that produce the bulk of the narcotics which are illegally sold throughout the free world) to food crops.

So, I would say, we are hard put to find proof of these starving millions reflected in the policies of the Red Chinese government. We would therefore have to expect to see the grain we might sell to Red China used to further Communist policies and ambitions, rather than for the succor of famine victims.

That is, we have no hard proof, unless we accept that the Communist regime of Red China puts the establishment of Communist doctrine above the lives of its own people, regardless of the degree of suffering (mental and physical) that will be inflicted.

But such an inhumane attitude is hardly suitable for a nation seeking membership in the United Nations, an organization whose charter, with its insistence on the inalienable rights and dignity of every human being, is one of the great humanitarian documents. Such a regime could be proved to act only in contempt of such humanitarian principles.

So, in order to militate against the exclusion of Red China from the United Nations, one must accept that the people of that unfortunate country are not starving, and that the only charge one can bring against their overlords is that they are liars.

Build The UN For Peace

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Enclosed is a letter sent to Secretary of State Dean Rusk:
Dear Mr. Secretary:

Mr. Stevenson has stated that with the latest Russian test of a 50 megaton bomb the world has made a "great leap backward, towards anarchy and disaster."

Let us not lose moral leadership in the world by resuming atmospheric testing. The uncommitted world knows that the U. S. has made many more tests than the Soviet Union, including their latest series of tests.

We are convinced that nuclear war cannot possibly solve any major disagreement, for it would result in devastation so complete as to require a military dictatorship to control and govern any possible survivors.

We urge you, therefore, to exert your leadership in strengthening the United Nations, as our only hope for world peace is through world law enforced by a strong United Nations.

Unless this is done, today's bomb shelters may indeed become tomorrow's tombs.

A housewife bought one of those new electric washing machines which does virtually everything but talk, but called up the service department the next day to say that the darn thing wasn't functioning properly. A repairman came to investigate, and tossed a couple of pairs of socks and a frayed shirt into the machine.

In two shakes of a lamb's tail, the clothing was washed, dried, ironed, and folded — then tossed across the room where it landed tidily in the left-hand dresser drawer.

"What's wrong with that, lady?" asked the repairman.

"Can't you see?" rasped the housewife. "I always keep my husband's socks in the RIGHT-HAND drawer."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By THERON NEWELL

If You Think We've Had A Lot Of Rain, Let Me Tell You About—

Probably the sun will be shining brightly when you read this, but as it is being written, Marin County is having some much needed rain.

Which of course brings to mind some tall rain stories.

It has been truthfully told of a family that lived in the Southwest desert. One day a small cloud could be seen in the distance. Out of this cloud could be seen streamers of rain. The man of the house got all the children in the family car and headed toward the cloud.

"I want you to see some rain," he told the children.

"How about Grandma?" the children asked thinking of their dear old grandmother left behind.

"It's alright," the father answered, "she's seen rain."

MARIN COUNTY, of course, doesn't get that dry, but then it doesn't hold any records for wetness either. North Marin residents around Novato thought it was wet Friday after two inches fell up to 8 a.m. Then it started raining really hard.

Col. Herbert Sears, secretary to the Novato Chamber of Commerce, said the biggest rain he had seen was 19 inches of rain in two hours in the South Pacific.

That could only be topped by the Iowa farmer who had migrated into the area some years ago. He said that they didn't measure the rain in inches, but he distinctly remembered one good rain in Iowa. There was an old barrel out in the barnyard that had both ends knocked out of it. The barrel was lying on its side with the bunghole up. It was raining through the bunghole faster than it could run out both ends of the barrel.

That should be enough rain stories until the water runs over the top of Stafford Dam.

I'M NOT CASTING any insinuations on the quality of manhood in the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, but . . .

It sure looks like the Jaycees aren't keeping their female counterparts busy, occupied, or something or other.

In "The Mustang," Jaycee publication, this ad appeared:

"Attention, Jaycees—

"Ten luscious females have typewriters—will type—contact chairwoman."

What kind of men are there that 10 luscious females have to advertise for work — any kind of work???

WHEN MISS Gladys Snyder, state recreational specialist, was speaking before the newly formed Novato Parks and Recreation Commission Thursday night, she said that many recreation projects were a direct outgrowth of the old WPA.

Then she remembered that perhaps there were people in the audience so young that they could not remember the depression and the old Works Progress Administration.

"Does everyone know what WPA means?" she asked.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget said he did — it means "Work the Pants off the Administrator."

WALTER LIPPMANN

We Can Not Allow Neutrals To Make Our Decisions Or They Ours

WASHINGTON — There is no point in the arc between the poles of opinion on neutrality, moral or immoral, which can be defined as exactly the right one.

There is no such thing as a general attitude towards neutrals which will be exactly right for all our dealings with the infinitely diverse and conglomerate mass of the peoples of the world whose governments are not allied with either of the great coalitions of the cold war.

For many of us, it is always uncomfortable to find that there is no black and that there is no white, but only a large variety of grays. Yet that is what we must put up with in the real world.

THERE IS AN enormous mass of mankind living in many different states, almost all of their governments recently created, who feel that they are outside the great conflicts which have preoccupied us for a generation. For them, the burning issue in the world is the elimination of the last vestiges of colonialism, not the conflict between Western and Communist society.

Our efforts to convince them that colonialism has all but disappeared seem to them to miss the central point. Our appeals that they concern themselves with the subjugation of the peoples of Eastern Europe seem irrelevant to their own vital interests.

BEING OUTSIDE the great conflict of our time, trying to remain outside, certainly does not make the unaligned countries the conscience of the world. When it comes to the vital question, which is how to maintain the balance of power which preserves the peace of the world, the final decision cannot be left to those who do not have the ultimate responsibility for peace.

But in all that we do which affects their development, it is a different matter. There, we must have great and continual respect for their opinions, and the decisions must be joint and voluntary.

And so, while it would be foolish to treat the underdeveloped countries as our mor-al superiors, inviting them to lay down the law to us, it would be no less foolish, and inherently wrong, to talk as if we could and should lay down the law to them. What is more, we cannot lay down the law to them.

IN THE COURSE of time there will emerge, from the diverse conglomeration of the underdeveloped and unaligned countries, new powers in human affairs. We cannot buy their friendships. We cannot earn their friendships by abasing ourselves as if there were some reason to be ashamed of the awful burden of responsibility which we carry.

If there is any good rule of behavior, it is, so I think I have learned from my experience, that we must not hide our faults. Yet we must not apologize for them abjectly as if we alone had faults. Then with self-respect in ourselves we can pay continual respect to others.

20 YEARS AGO

Goaded by state Atty. Gen. Earl Warren and Dist. Atty. A. E. Bagshaw in opposition, Judge Benjamin Jones filed a supplemental memorandum reiterating that T. Fred Bagshaw and R. A. Thompson are "out" as Marin County supervisors though still directors of the Golden Gate Bridge District.

AN EYE FOR ART—This painting in the current exhibition of the works of French master Henri Matisse in New York is hanging upside down. No? Turn your paper upside down and see. See? So did Mrs. Genevieve Habert. The painting is of a sailboat and its reflection—as anyone can plainly see. (AP Wirephoto)

ARTISTIC FAUX PAS

Painting Is Hung Upside Down —Only One Person Catches On

NEW YORK (AP)—Genevieve Habert, a French-born art lover, has caught the Museum of Modern Art in an artistic faux pas.

For 47 days the museum had been hanging an Henri Matisse picture upside down. Museum experts admitted their mistake yesterday and turned the picture right side up.

The picture in question is a simple cut-and-pasted gouache of a sailboat and its reflection. Consequently, it looks pretty much the same one side up or the other.

So it apparently did to all but one of the 116,000 persons who have visited the museum since the Matisse exhibition opened Oct. ?—including the late French master's son, New York art dealer Pierre Matisse.

Mrs. Habert, a Wall Street stock broker, visited the exhibit and looked at the picture. She considered it from all angles. "It just didn't look right," she says.

"Either you feel a picture or you don't. I have studied Matisse avidly, and this picture seemed to be off balance. It just didn't match my idea of Matisse's catching the movement.

"I kept coming back to the museum to look at the picture. I even brought my two children and let them look at it. Something there bothered me."

Sunday, Mrs. Habert suddenly realized what was bothering her. To back up her certainty the picture was upside down, she bought a catalogue and found a reproduction of it. There it was—right side up.

But when she pointed out the mistake to a museum guard, she says, he told her: "You don't know what's up and you don't know what's down, and neither do we."

The fuss got the former Parisienne's French ire up. Mrs. Habert says she went from one museum employee to the next without any success and finally got to the information desk. There, a girl said she also had a feeling the picture was upside down.

Yesterday the matter was brought to the attention of Monroe Wheeler, director of exhibitions, who had selected the 40 gouaches shown at the museum.

A gouache is a painting with opaque colors which have been ground in water and mingled with a preparation of gum.

Wheeler went to the picture, looked at it and gasped: "Oh, no."

Youth, 19, Is Facing Manslaughter Charge

A San Rafael youth, whose car hit a tree and killed two passengers two Saturdays ago, faces a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

Ronald Sauer, 19, of 103 La Brea Street is scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court next Monday afternoon to be arraigned on the misdemeanor complant. Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety filed a complaint, accusing Sauer of killing two persons without malice while driving a car with gross negligence.

Victims were Larry R. Blankenship, 18, of San Rafael and Thomas Duane Watson, 20, of Fairfax. They died in the hospital the next day from head injuries.

San Rafael police said Sauer was apparently passing another car on B Street when the car went into a skid and demolished itself against a tree at the corner of B and Bayview streets.

While the dove is considered an emblem of peace, it will mercilessly peck an opponent to death if engaged in combat.

New United Fund Head Nominated

Donald Kreps of San Anselmo, principal of Redwood High School, has been nominated for presidency of the Marin United Fund, Joseph G. Wilson, nominating committee chairman, announced today.

Kreps, who was named to succeed Harry J. Cooper Jr. of Mill Valley, has served as chairman of the Marin United Fund's admissions and allocations committee the past two years.

Elections will be held at the fund's annual dinner meeting at 7 p.m. Dec. 19 at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

Judge Wilson, a resident of San Rafael, and Mrs. Robert Kettenbach of Belvedere were nominated to continue as vice-presidents. George M. Henderson, San Rafael, was named to Walter E. Zurcher, also of San Rafael, as the third vice-president.

Patrick R. Byrne of Mill Valley is nominee for secretary to succeed Jess J. France Jr. of Ross. Arthur C. Latno of San Rafael was nominated for treasurer to succeed John V. Bacigalupi, also of San Rafael.

Nominated as members-at-large of the executive committee were three present members: B. W. Broemmel and Fred F. Enemark of San Rafael and Mrs. Thomas J. Mellon of Ross. Nominees as new members are Douglas R. Horton, Ignacio; Roderick P. Martinelli, San Rafael, and Harry J. Cooper Jr., Mill Valley, to succeed E. W. Bullard Jr., Ross, and Jordan B. Dell'Era and George M. Henderson, San Rafael.

Merton A. Jacobs of San Rafael was nominated as an honary director.

Seven new members were nominated for the board of directors, to serve three-year terms. They are Carroll Walker of San Rafael, last of three chairmen of this year's Marin United Crusade campaign; Paul F. Kent, Louis G. Freitas and Hugh Cassidy of San Rafael; Mrs. S. I. Hayakawa and William A. Fleming of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Richard Deyo of Sausalito.

DONALD KREPS
Proposed to head fund

Re-nominated to the board were Mrs. George J. Alpers, Roger P. Garety, Guido A. Todaro, Arthur Latno and Judge Wilson of San Rafael; Jesse E. Berry of Marin City; Mrs. Daniel A. Collins, Mrs. William R. Eastman Jr. and Robert G. Randolph of Mill Valley; Mrs. Frank E. Duhme Jr. of Tiburon; Dr. Russell R. Klein of Kentfield; Kreps and Mrs. Mellon.

Directors and honorary directors will be elected by members of Marin United Fund (all donors to the United Crusade) who attend the annual meeting and sign the membership roll. Officers and members-at-large of the executive committee will be elected by the newly organized board of directors. Committee appointments also will by approved by the new board.

The 1961 board is scheduled to make its final report at the Dec. 19 meeting.

Laborer Arraigned In Weapon Hearing

Willie Lord Williams, 29-year-old laborer and ex-convict formerly of Marin City and more recently of San Rafael, was arraigned in Marin Superior Court yesterday on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. His plea was set for Dec. 18.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. set the date for Williams, who was arrested in a San Rafael bar Oct. 27 when he tried to fire a .32 caliber revolver, whose cartridges had been removed, at two men with whom he was quarreling.

Survey For Park Area Is Approved

Corte Madera Town Council last night unanimously approved a $3,000 engineering survey for the Madera Park area.

Hired by the council to conduct a general survey was Daniel Coleman of Coleman Associates engineering firm. He will make studies of aerial photographs of the area and will examine water, sewage and drainage conditions.

Developers for a proposed subdivision on the property, Joe H. Stewart and Jack Estes, asked Coleman what the survey would cover. Coleman answered by giving the points as: (1) air and ground surveys; (2) street systems and connections; (3) sites for buildings; and (4) water, sewage and drainage.

The land to be studied extends from Tamalpais Avenue south past the property lines and from Sausalito Street on the west to Meadowsweet Drive on the east.

Estes said he had hoped for a more detailed engineering study of the area, but agreed with the council after Coleman said costs of such a survey would be much higher.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow said Sausalito Street would be a connection to Mill Valley, according to the master plan. Brandow said the needed money for the survey could come from the unappropriated reserve of the general fund. He had recommended the council authorize the survey.

Ex-Felon Arraigned

Arraignment of Paul R. Bernhardt, 30, Sausalito houseboat resident and ex-convict, on suspicion of forging prescriptions to satisfy his dope craving was continued yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to this afternoon as his case was referred to the public defender. He was arrested in Mill Valley Friday.

FURNACE LICENSE IS CANCELED OUT

Corte Madera town councilmen were all one voice last night concerning Holland Furnace Co.: "Cancel its license."

The councilmen unanimously approved canceling the furnace company's license for work in Corte Madera and included in the motion that "this company cannot do business in Corte Madera unless it comes before the council and gets approval."

Holland Furnace Co. attorney John F. Ward did not attend the meeting as was scheduled, but sent a written statement to the council.

The statement said, "All customer complaints have now been settled (in Corte Madera)." It also said "building permits were later obtained for all installations and the penalty payment for late permits was paid."

In closing the statement, Ward wrote: "Under the circumstances its (Holland Furnace Co.) business license has been returned to the issuer (Town of Corte Madera) and is no longer in effect. We therefore respectfully submit that the matter should now stand closed."

The council, on suggestion of Councilman Edward H. Colthurst, voted to file the letter and state in the official minutes that the decision to cancel the license came from the council "because of previous actions" and "not because Holland Furnace Co. returned the license."

During the discussion, Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow said, "This is the first canceled business license in the town in six years."

March Of Dimes Kickoff Dinner Slated Tonight

Officials of the Marin County chapter of the National Foundation and volunteer workers will gather at 7 p.m. today at Sabella's Restaurant on Highway 101 for the 1962 March of Dimes kickoff dinner.

Convened by William B. Wolfson of Ross, county chairman, the dinner will enable all participants in the 1962 March of Dimes to get details on the fund-raising event.

Cal Wilson, New York regional director for the National Foundation, and Jack Major, Northern California representative, will share the speaker's duties.

The March of Dimes, which provides funds for the victims of polio, arthritis and birth defects, will begin in Marin Jan. 2, and will end Jan. 31.

Liston Demands Title Shot

TORONTO (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's fourth round knockout of lion-hearted Tom McNeeley Jr., in a wild, eight-knockdown brawl and Sonny Liston's dynamic one-punch blitz of Albert Westphal stirred up the possibility today of a 10-million-dollar showdown between the two victors.

The battle of the 1960s may not come off soon. Although Patterson, according to those very close to him, wants it badly, Liston hungers for it, and promoters Al and Tom Bolan, among others, desire it, cautious Cus D'Amato, the champ's manager, is in no hurry.

More to Cus' liking for the next fight is Henry Cooper, the British heavyweight champion, who meets contender Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz. in London tonight. That's what D'Amato told the Associated Press.

Patterson, unmarked and very fresh after his victory last night, declined to answer when asked if he would give Liston a crack at the title. He merely pointed to his manager.

"Liston can have a fight next week if he wants it," said D'Amato. "He knows what he must do to get it. It is up to him. That is all I can say."

He declined to elaborate.

Patterson said he would like to fight again early next year.

Liston, after flattening Westphal with one right hand to the jaw in 1:58 of the first round at Philadelphia's Convention Hall, said, "I'm ready for him right now."

"He's been scared of me for more than a year and a half," said Liston, the reinstated No. 1 contender from Philadelphia who has had several scrapes with the law.

The Patterson-McNeeley wing-ding in which Patterson went down on a so-called slip, at Maple Leaf Gardens, and the Liston-Westphal quickie formed a closed-circuit television double-header that was shown in about 150 theatres and arenas in the United States and Canada. It was also beamed to homes in 51 community antenna community systems.

Irving B. Kahn, president of TelePromTer, which handles the ancillary rights (TV, radio, movies), estimated that he could line up 1,500,000 seats at an average $5 a head for a Patterson-Liston fight. The gate at a place like New York's Yankee Stadium could produce a $2.5-million gross at a $100 top, experts figured.

The Patterson-McNeeley scrap was a thriller from the very start. There were so many knockdowns and slips that arguments raged as to whether the former Michigan State football tackle was down eight, nine or 10 times, and whether Patterson actually was dropped or slipped in the fourth round.

The Associated Press count had McNeeley down eight times where he was given the mandatory eight-counts, and twice on slips which might have been knockdowns.

Referee Jersey Joe Walcott, the former heavyweight champion, ruled there were two slips by McNeeley and that Patterson went down on a slip in the fourth round.

McNeeley, a strong, 6-2, 197-pounder, was knocked down once in the first round, four times in the third, and three times in the 2:51 fourth round. Walcott ruled he also slipped once in the first round and once in the third.

Patterson admitted he was hurt a couple of times in the third and fourth rounds.

"I knew when I was hit in the fourth round," said the champion, trim at 188½ pounds, "but I was never seriously in trouble."

Although he had the brawny but inexperienced McNeeley going up and down like a rubber ball, Patterson still didn't look like a 10-1 favorite. Crude as he was the crewcut blond from Arlington, Mass., gave the slick champion plenty of trouble.

By OSCAR FRALEY

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The "buildup" was "on" today for a heavyweight championship bout between Floyd Patterson and Charles (Sonny) Liston.

Liston, the Peck's bad boy of the ring, demolished one Al Westphal, a baker from Hamburg, Germany, at 1:58 of the first round in sparsely-populated Philadelphia Convention Hall last night.

Then, in what was billed as the piece de resistance of an electronic twin bill on pay-through-the-nose theater television, Patterson finally chopped down Tom McNeeley at 2:51 of the fourth round in Toronto.

It might have been a fair-to-middling production if Liston had boxed Patterson and McNeely had cut of cookies with Westphal. The former two looked like fair boxfighters; the latter two like refugees from a bakery.

SUMS IT UP

Patterson, the man who comes out of hiding twice a year to exchange swats with people who couldn't knock your hat off with a baseball bat, summed it up succinctly when he said of McNeeley:

"If he keeps going like he did tonight, someday he'll be up among the number one contenders."

This, the customers thought, was the idea last night.

Patterson did allude briefly to Liston, as you probably missed if you were one of the fortunates who did not pay out good money to see the slicing of the Westphalian ham or the canning of the beans that would go so well with it.

"He is a great fighter and has all the capabilities of becoming champion," Floyd said.

NO IF OR WHEN

But Patterson, who needed nine knockdowns, more or less, to keep McNeeley from beating the bell the last time, didn't say if and when he would step into the ring with the big man from Philadelphia.

Liston wasn't quite so reluctant.

"The only sweat I worked up was when I stood in a neutral corner under those television lights," quoth Charles. "Frankly, I expected to put him away in the first round.

"And, to tell the truth," he added, "I'd go out there right now without a shower and take on Patterson."

Considering the difficulties which Patterson had against the inept McNeeley, this would hardly have been a fair encounter, either.

The FISHIN' FOOL

IJ Fish and Game Writer

Don't Forget Angling License, Wardens Check Up Early In Year

STEVENS

The Department of Fish and Game has completed sports fishing angling license shipments to the approximately 4,000 license agents in California. The new licenses become valid on New Year's Day and expire Dec. 31, 1962.

Why mention the above? Because during the first week of January there are historically more citations issued by wardens for fishing without a current angling license, than in all other times of the year. Maybe some folks expected to get a license from Santa Claus, and when it didn't happen they just plain forgot to get one. Or, maybe because they have been asked to show their license only once in 10 or more years of fishing. They'll take a chance on this one trip and get a license later. That's bad figuring. This will be the second time a warden has asked for the license in that 10 years, and the poor hombre is caught without one.

Oddly, it has been said that the second highest number of arrests for "no license" happens in November and December. Probably because a guy who hasn't done any fishing during the year hates to pony up a license fee for only eight per cent of the year's allowance. Like the party who went out on a party boat a week or so ago and half of the party had no license.

ANOTHER REGULATION that has many anglers a bit confused is the necessity for adding stamps to the basic license. The fact that a steelhead, for example, is actually a trout has caused a few to purchase not only the basic license at a fee of $3, but a stamp for the taking of all fish EXCEPT trout (fee $1) and a second stamp (for an additional one buck) for trout. Perhaps that angler will fish the coastal streams for steelhead, but has no intention of fishing for other trout. That guy has bought one stamp too many.

TO KEEP the record straight, suppose you bear in mind that the basic license, which all fishermen must have, and which allows you to fish in all ocean waters (that includes the local bays) and to take frogs in any area, costs $3. One stamp allows you to take all fish except trout and an additional $1 completely covers the field.

Some relative or friend from back east or the northwest, or deep south comes to pay you a visit. You can get him a three-day OCEAN fishing license for $1, a 10-day ocean fishing license for $3 or a year-long ocean fishing license for $10. For fishing in other than ocean waters, appropriate stamps must be added to the above. Incidentally, a resident of California may get a special three-day ocean fishing license for the same fee as the non-resident, $1.

NOW IT can be told. The result of our pheasant season just past, was NOT a winner. There was a 9 per cent drop in the number of hunters in the field and a 14 per cent drop in the number of birds taken this year as against 1960 season.

THE SECOND half of our split waterfowl season opens on Saturday. According to the scuttebutt, prospects look a lot rosier than during the first half. Let's hope so.

SCATTERED REPORTS seem to indicate a fair to good weekend of striper striving hither and yon. The back country main streams apparently have quite a bit of color, but not enough to stop the bass from biting. I will report more in detail in my next, and give you dope on steelhead fishing in the coast streams. Until then, goodbye, good luck and go get 'em!

49ers Sign San Jose Draft Pick

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco 49ers announced yesterday the signing of San Jose State tackle Leon Donohue, their ninth draft choice of 1960.

The team was idle with Coach Red Hickey in Chicago for the 1961 draft.

A newspaper report that eight 49ers were threatening to refuse to play the last two National Football League games unless they got pay increases to compensate for this year's expanded schedule aroused speculation.

No player allegedly involved in the possible strike was named and the 49er management said it had heard no such threats.

Fight Postponed

MONTREAL (AP)—The Archie Moore-Bob Cleroux heavyweight fight scheduled for tonight has been postponed, promoter Eddie Quinn said today.

Games Today

Because of an erroneous schedule, the Novato-San Rafael Military Academy and Tomales-Tamalpais "B" team high school basketball games were reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal as being scheduled for yesterday. The contests, however, were to be played today, and results will be reported in tomorrow's I-J.

'Bama Crimson Tide Heads List Of College Bowl Teams

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Alabama's Crimson Tide, unbeaten and untied in 10 regular season games, heads a list of 18 major college football teams that will participate in those always interesting postseason football games, beginning with Saturday's infant Gotham Bowl in New York.

Alabama, which buried Auburn 34-0 Saturday to wrap up its first perfect season in 16 years, will meet Southwest Conference co-champion Arkansas (8-1) in New Orleans' Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day.

The Tide, a bright and shiny product after four years of refurbishing by Coach Bear Bryant, was one of four schools to nail down bowl spots Saturday. Minnesota's Gophers (7-2) got the much-wanted Rose Bowl spot opposite Big Five champion UCLA (7-3).

Mississippi, after its 37-7 victory over Mississippi State, announced it would meet Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Both finished 9-1. Rice (7-3) won its crucial game against Gotham Bowl-bound Baylor (26-14) and became Kansas' (6-3-1) opponent in the Dec. 16 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, Tex.

The Gotham Bowl, which never got off the ground in 1960 and was a question mark until last Thursday, will pit unbeaten, but once-tied Utah State's Skyline Conference (9-0-1) co-champions against Baylor (5-5) Saturday at New York's Polo Grounds.

The following week, Miami (7-3), which ended its season with a 15-6 victory over Florida Saturday, journeys north to Philadelphia Stadium to meet Syracuse (7-3) in the third annual Liberty Bowl.

Penn State (7-3 plays Georgia Tech (7-3) in the Gator Bowl on Dec. 30. Tech also wound up the regular season on a happy note, beating Georgia 22-7 Saturday.

Villanova (8-2) meets Wichita (7-3) in the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Tex., also on Dec. 30.

Colorado (9-1) meets Louisiana State, co-Southeastern Conference champion with Alabama, in the Orange Bowl. LSU finished with a 9-1 mark. Colorado beat Air Force 29-12 in its final game Saturday.

Everyone began to wonder if Army would ever beat Navy again, following the Middies' 13-7 victory before 101,000, including President Kennedy Saturday in Philadelphia.

The Middies, getting seven points from end Greg Mather on two field goals and an extra point, have a slew of underclassmen coming back next year. The Cadets went primarily with a senior team, and wound up with their third consecutive loss, putting Coach Dale Hall's job in jeopardy.

Notre Dame ended its rehabilitation program on a sour note, losing to Duke 37-13 and wound up with a 5-5 record, including the disputed field goal victory over Syracuse.

In other final day action, Holy Cross rolled over Boston College 38-26, North Carolina beat Virginia 24-0, Tennessee swamped Vanderbilt 41-7, Houston upset Oregon State 23-12, Oklahoma ended with a 5-5 mark after knocking off Oklahoma State 21-13 and Texas Christian and Southern Methodist battle to a 28-28 tie.

Unbeaten Alabama Crowned As Collegiate Football Kings

NEW YORK (AP) — Alabama was voted the 1961 Associated Press national football champion today, a goal set for the Crimson Tide by master rebuilder Paul (Bear) Bryant.

In the final poll of board members, defense-minded Alabama drew 452 of a possible 480 points to edge Big Ten champion Ohio State which collected 436.

The final poll results with first-place votes in parenthesis:

1.	Alabama (26)	452
2.	Ohio State (20)	436
3.	Texas	348
4.	Louisiana State (1)	335
5.	Mississippi (1)	284
6.	Minnesota	225
7.	Colorado	171
8.	Michigan State	128
9.	Arkansas	105
10.	Utah State	33

Other teams receiving votes included: Missouri 18, Purdue 15, Georgia Tech 12, Syracuse 11, Rutgers 9, UCLA 7; Rice, Penn State and Arizona, 5 each; Duke 4; Michigan, Navy, Kansas and Wyoming, 3 each; Wisconsin 2, Miami Fla. 1.

49ers Cut Big Slice From The Draft Pie

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Washington Redskins got the prize plum of the 1961 college football crop, Syracuse halfback Ernie Davis, in the National Football League draft, but San Francisco, Cleveland, St. Louis and Los Angeles also came up with a heavy share of talent.

The 49ers picked the most players among the 280 listed for negotiation rights by the 14 NFL clubs in the 26th annual grabbag to divide the best of the college talent, but Cleveland and Los Angeles got a break in the quality.

San Francisco plucked 24 players from the list, more than any other team, and Los Angeles, also with two first choices, had 23. St. Louis, which had two first choices too, picked 21 players.

The 49er draft choices in the order they were picked:

Torrid Elgin Baylor Paces Lakers Victory

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Elgin Baylor, snapping back from one of his few bad games, broke loose for 22 points in the first quarter tonight and then went on to score 50 in leading the Los Angeles Lakers to a 131-120 victory over the Syracue Nationals.

The Victory, Los Angeles' second in a row after the Lakers broke a four-game losing streak, increased their National Basketball Assn. Western Division lead to four full games over the idle Cincinnati Royals.

Baylor, second leading scorer in the NBA, was held to 20 points Saturday night against Philadelphia.

Cagers Live Up To Their Rave Notices

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The basketball coaches have been raving about Steve Gray and Tom Dose and last night, the lads showed why.

Steve Gray, a St. Mary's junior, potted 25 points when Stanford beat the Gaels 71-67. Tom Dose, a 6-foot-8 Stanford sophomore, scored 22.

In the only other Northern California action yesterday Nevada beat Long Beach State 82-63 and Presidio of San Francisco beat Humboldt State 80-39.

Busiest meeting place in Marin

250,000th Classified ad of 1961 runs today

Day after day, buyers and sellers "meet" in the biggest market place in Marin County—I-J Classified. And for just one reason: immediate results.

These advertisements parade the offers and wants of the entire county. They're not skimmed, they're searched. They're the closest thing to face-to-face selling, but with this all-important advantage: like any advertising in the I-J, Classified ads reach not just one prospect at a time, but some 70,000 interested readers each evening.

That's the simple arithmetic of their phenomenal success. Sellers and buyers know that "this is the place" for results. Whether it's a Realtor service, a business service, a sofa, a used car or a new job, I-J Classified starts the phones ringing.

Dollar for dollar, reader for reader, no other medium even approaches the practical pulling power of this Marin-wide market place. Best proof is the community's own testimonial in placing with us, as of today, a quarter-million Classified ads during 1961.

Gingerbread Boys, Sugar Plums To Highlight Cookie Carnival

Happy memories of an old fashioned Christmas are brought back by the spicy scent of gingerbread boys at the annual Cookie Carnival to be presented by the San Rafael Ward Relief Society of the Latter-Day Saints Church on Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The carnival will feature the Christmas cookies made with butter, fruit and nut bread, cakes, pies, jams, jellies, seasonings, and fresh popcorn. The Candy Shop will again have English toffie, spiced walnuts, divinity, a special rich nutty fudge, and that good peanut brittle. Bread, rolls, and honey cakes made from old Mormon Pioneer recipes will be for sale.

According to Mrs. William C. Deaver, general chairman of the Carnival, the Boutique will have Christmas decorations and aprons for big and little girls, all hand made by Relief Society members.

There will be a Pick-A-Gift Sugar Plum Tree for the children and a continuous movie cartoon program. Lunch will be from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. By popular request, turkey sandwiches on hot home made rolls will again be served.

The Carnival is open to the public. The chapel is located on Bon Air Road at Sir Francis Drake Blvd. near Greenbrae.

Mrs. Philip Howard, Relief Society president will act as official hostess. Committee chairmen are the Mesdames Allan Judson, Clifford P. Marshall, Blair Sorensen, Fred Wood, Neal Sorensen and Max Kimball.

The recipes for the Pioneer bread and honey cakes are:

PIONEER BREAD

2 cups scalded milk
3 tablespoons shortening or butter
½ cup sugar (scant)
2 tablespoons salt
1 egg
1½ yeast cakes
2 quarts all purpose flour

Dissolve 1½ yeast cakes in ¾ cup of lukewarm water with 1 teaspoon sugar, let stand about 10 minutes.

Sift flour, salt, and sugar into a large mixing bowl. Make a well in the flour, add milk and shortening that has cooled to lukewarm, add beaten egg, and dissolved yeast cakes. Stir and mix with spoon until dough is stiff enough to handle. If dough seems too stiff, add warm water until dough is easy to handle. Cover, keep warm. Let dough rise until double in size then place on lightly floured board and knead gently 1 minute, cut into three parts, shape into loaves, let rise until double in size. Bake in 350° oven for 1 hour.

GERMAN HONEY CAKE WITH EGGS

Cut into small pieces and combine:

3 ounces citron
3 ounces candied orange peel

Add:

1 cup chopped blanched almonds
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
3 tablespoons cinnamon
1 tablespoon cloves
3⅓ cups confectioners sugar

Beat until light and add:

6 eggs

Bring to boiling point, then cool until lukewarm:

1 pint honey

Dissolve 1 tablespoon soda in 2 tablespoons water. Add this mixture to the eggs with the honey and

¼ cup orange juice

Sift and stir into mixture 6 cups bread flour. Permit the dough to stand for 12 hours or more. Drop mixture from a spoon well apart on a greased baking sheet. Bake in a moderate oven, about 350° 15 to 18 minutes.

Baked Bananas Easy To Mix

A delightful fruit dessert that is easy to prepare.

Beverage

EMMIE LAW'S BAKED BANANAS

⅓ cup fine graham cracker crumbs
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon grated orange rind (packed down)
6 firm large bananas
1 egg (slightly beaten)
¼ cup butter or margarine

Mix together the crumbs, salt, sugar, cinnamon and orange rind. Peel bananas; dip each into the egg and then the crumbs. Melt butter in a small shallow baking dish — a pie plate is fine; arrange bananas in butter. Bake in a very hot (450 degrees) oven 6 to 7 minutes, basting with the butter once or twice. Serve hot with whipped or sour cream. Makes 6 servings.

Melt Chocolate

If you have the cover-type of teakettle, you can use it for melting chocolate. Have some water simmering in the kettle, after removing the cover and fitting a small bowl into the cover's space, and put the chocolate in the bowl. Use a narrow rubber spatula to get every last drop of chocolate out of the bowl. You can melt chocolate directly over extremely low heat, but it has to be stirred and watched because it scorches easily.

NEW STEAMSTIR appliance will scramble two eggs in less than two minutes without burning, scorching or sticking; and will cook as many as a dozen by new steam-heat principle which makes them lighter and more flavorful than usual cooking procedures. Fresh and frozen vegetables, soups and sauces, and cereals are also cooked uniformly by method which stirs with steam as foods cook. Steamstir is a boon to the health-conscious, requiring no fats to prevent sticking and also cooking vegetables without water so that they retain full food value. Operating from a standard electric outlet, Steamstir can be stored compactly because plastic bowl nests over UL-approved base.

Skillet Lunch

Lunch from a skillet features fresh corn and canned shrimp. Melt ¼ cup of butter or margarine in a 9 or 10-inch skillet. Add 4 cups of fresh corn cut off the cob (about 8 ears) and ½ teaspoon of sugar. Saute 10 to 12 minutes, or until corn is tender, stirring frequently. In a saucepan, slowly heat one 5-ounce can of shrimp, drained, in 1 tblsp. of butter or margarine. Add to corn, along with 1¼ tsp. of salt, ¼ tsp. of onion salt and a dash of ground black pepper. Toss lightly with 1 tblsp. of fresh lemon juice. Serves six.

Saturday's Hero

One lb. of Armour Star Franks is as nourishing as one lb. of steak

This is why. In the 15 ways that the U.S. Department of Agriculture measures the nutritive values of foods, the mighty Armour Star Frankfurter stands right up to sirloin steak or any other fresh red meat. The reason is simple: Armour Star Franks are meat—tender, select cuts of beef and pork, mildly seasoned. All good food, food a body can use. So now you can be assured that the meat that tastes good to your children is good for them, too. Cheering news?
